Augsburg's "Christkindlesmarkt"

Discover one of Germany's most beautiful Christmas markets in Augsburg. Some even say it is the best. One thing is for sure: it's worth seeing. Not only because the "Christkindlesmarkt" is located on more than 300 years of traditions, but also because Augsburg is a fantastic Christmas city during the Advent season. What will you experience?

CHRISTMAS MARKET

Christmas season, the scents of spices, golden lights, the sounds of bell-ringing voices and music, gingerbread, roasted chestnuts, nativity scenes, Christmas decorations, toys for children and more entice visitors. The Augsburg "Christkindlesmarkt" is known all over the world for its charming atmosphere and impressive scenery of the Renaissance City Hall and the "Perler Tor". The "Golden Hall" or "advantage" is a charming, unique venue. The windows are "opened" into the glistening "village" of quaint booths. The Augsburg "Christkindlesmarkt" becomes a delightful and unique setting.

THE ANGEL PERFORMANCE

The "Angel performance" is a traditional highlight of the Christmas market. Each Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 6 p.m. the City Hall is transformed into a huge Advent calendar where 24 music-making angels appear above the Christmas market.

HENLEY POST OFFICE

Put under the towering Christmas tree, children will find the "Henley Post Office". Mail sent from here is delivered to the recipient with a postmark from the village Christkindl (Christ Child) in Austria. Also entry forms for the quiz game of the "Augsburg Fairy Tale Street" can be picked up at the "Henley post office".

Spice Mulled Wine and Sausages, Gingerbread, Roasted Chestnuts, Nativity Scenes, Christmas Decorations, Toys for Children and More Entice Visitors

The "Augsburg angel performance" is a traditional highlight of the Christmas market at the Moritzplatz square. They can also enjoy an extensive program like three plays from the Karfunkel puppet theater at the newly designed center stage.

THE ADVENT CALENDAR

The official advent clock of the city of Augsburg at City Hall square is transformed into an Advent calendar. All 24 windows (advantage) of St. Nicholas City and Christmas festoons display motives designed by graphic arts students of the Augsburg University of Applied Sciences.

The windows are "opened" daily at 4:30 p.m. (except Mon., Dec. 24, at 11:30 a.m.).

CHILDMER'S CHRISTMAS MARKET

Children will find a classroom in the center of the children's Christmas market at the Moritzplatz square. They can also enjoy an extensive program like three plays from the Karfunkel puppet theater at this newly designed center stage.
